2. What has been a struggle / what do you need prayer for this week?
3. What were your "I Will _____" statements from last week? How did you do on them?
4. Pray for one another.

DISCOVER

What is God's will for your life? How can you know God's will for your life?

Read Matthew 22:34-40

For those people that believe in God, one of the most important questions we can have is; What is God's will for my life? In this passage, Jesus is asked a question about what is most important to God in how we are to live.

1. What are we to do that will ensure we are in the center of God's will?
2. What does it look like in a practical sense to love God with all of our heart? What will our lives look like?
3. What does it look like in a practical sense to love our neighbor as ourselves?
4. How would your day-to-day life look different if you woke up every morning with your main ambition to be to love God and to love people? Would your priorities change? Would your schedule change? Would your spending habits change?

PRAY AND RESPOND

1. What is God calling you to do in response to this passage?
2. What is your “I will” statement?
3. Who will you share your “I Will” statement with?
4. How can others pray for you?

Spend time praying for each other. Each person should check in with at least one other person from the group this week to pray for and encourage them in their “I will” statement.

Who will you bless this week?

How will you live on mission this week?
